

VGGT - Multistakeholder Stocktaking Dialogue

Outline of the event

Opening remarks

Mr Robert Sabiiti, Chair of the Open Ended Working Group on Monitoring, outlines the background for the event, including the CFS monitoring role and the importance of tenure governance for food security and nutrition.

1. Setting the stage

Mr Gregory Myers¹ (moderator) outlines the event objectives, expected results, agenda and overview of the information provided in the submissions.

2. Sharing experiences and good practices

(i) Panel Discussion

5 panelists² outline their experience, with special attention to the challenges met, the results obtained and the good practices that have contributed to make their experience successful. They discuss how the design and results of their experiences have contributed to the VGGT’s objective of improving governance of tenure of land, fisheries and forests for the benefit of all, with an emphasis on vulnerable and marginalized people, and to the progressive realization of the right to adequate food. They also discuss how their experience resonates with the findings of the submissions that have adopted a similar approach in implementing the VGGT.

Geographical coverage	Panelist	Approach
National: Sierra Leone, Senegal or Uganda*	Government	Reform of legal and policy frameworks
National: Indonesia, Mongolia or Philippines*	Government	Operationalization
Regional: America Latina	Civil society	Awareness raising and capacity development
Global	Development partner	Development of multistakeholder platforms

¹ Gregory Wilson Myers chaired the negotiations of the OEWG on VGGT that led to the VGGT endorsement in 2012.

² The proposed profiles for the panelists is based on the relevance of the submissions, the intent to showcase different levels of the submissions (national, regional and global) and to reflect the diversity of experiences of CFS members and participants.

(ii) Plenary discussion

Participants are invited to ask questions to the panelists and comment on the presentations on the basis of their experiences.

3. Wrap up and the Way Forward

The moderator summarizes the session focusing on:

- Progress made in implementing VGGTs and achieving their main objective;
- Factors that have influenced results; and
- Ways to achieve better results based on good practices.

H.E. Amira Gornass, Chair, Committee on World Food Security, closes the event and presents the conclusions that will be included in the report.
