

The Permanent Representation of Norway to the UN organisations in Rome and the Civil Society Mechanism for relations with the UN Committee on World Food Security (CSM), in collaboration with the Permanent Representations of Brazil, Switzerland and South Africa kindly invite you to the event

The Right to Adequate Food

Promoting accountability of food security actions to the people most affected by food insecurity and malnutrition

24 January 2017

German Room, FAO HQs

9.30 - 13.00

The event will address the following questions:

- What is the Role of the Right to Adequate food in CFS, 20 years after the World Food Summit?
- Why is accountability to affected populations important for the Right to Adequate Food of the people most affected by food insecurity and malnutrition, and how does it operate in practice?
- Why is the right to adequate food and accountability to affected populations important on the country level?

The event is open to all members, participants and observers of the CFS, and staff members of the Rome-based Agencies

The event will be held in English

A light breakfast will be served at 9.00
