CSM perspectives on the upcoming CFS policy convergence on food systems and nutrition

Thursday, March 8, 14:00–15:30h

The Civil Society Mechanism (CSM) for relations with the UN Committee on World Food Security (CFS) would like to invite interested members and participants of the CFS to an informational session on CSM perspectives on the CFS policy convergence on food systems and nutrition, in preparation for the upcoming session of the related CFS OEWG.

The session will provide a valuable opportunity to have a first exchange on civil society's reflections on how this policy convergence process could significantly contribute to the progressive realization of the human rights to adequate food and nutrition and the fulfillment of Women's Rights. It will also allow civil society to share some forward-looking proposals regarding the Decade of Action on Nutrition.

The event is open to all members, participants and observers to the CFS

Interpretation will be available in English, French and Spanish
